Community health workers (CHWs) are crucial as a bridge between the public and essential resources during outreach efforts. Knowing the proper resources helps CHWs further their work in community health. This course empowers CHWs with the knowledge of accessible resources from government, nonprofits, and outreach programs.

This training is supported by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), together with the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) as part of awards totaling $4,339,895 and $3,000,000, respectively, with 0% financed with non-governmental sources.
